The day has arrived and we depart Cleveland on an overnight journey to Ireland. Dinner will be served in flight.

Day 2: Friday, July 31, 2026 | Dublin

This morning, we arrive in Dublin. After clearing passport control we will be greeted by our Tour Manager. We explore Ireland's capital, beginning with St. Patrick's Cathedral, the National Cathedral of the Church of Ireland. Founded in 1191, this is the largest church in Ireland and, according to tradition, was built beside the sacred well where Saint Patrick baptized converts in the 5th century. As we tour the Gothic interior, we note the graves of historical figures like Jonathan Swift (author of Gulliver's Travels, who was Dean here) and learn how this cathedral has been a center of Irish Christian life for over 800 years. Continue with a visit to Dublin Castle, the historic heart of the city and former seat of British rule in Ireland. Originally built on the site of a Viking settlement and later developed into a 13th-century fortress, the castle has played a central role in the country's political history. During our visit you'll have time to explore the elegant State Apartments, admire the beautiful Chapel Royal and stroll through the lovely gardens. This evening, the group enjoys a welcome dinner together at a restaurant near the hotel. Overnight Dublin. The Conrad or similar. D.

We will visit the iconic Trinity College Dublin, and view the Book of Kells, a renowned 9th-century illuminated Gospel manuscript created by Celtic monks.* In Trinity's Old Library, students will see two impeccably decorated pages of this masterpiece on display, learning about its intricate artwork and how it survived from around 800 AD. We continue with a visit to Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin's oldest cathedral and one of the city's most iconic landmarks. Founded in the 11th century on the site of an earlier Viking church, it is renowned for its stunning medieval architecture, vaulted nave and fascinating crypt, one of the largest in Ireland. Along the way, we pass the famous Molly Malone Statue, a beloved symbol of the city inspired by the traditional folk song, and Dublin City Hall, an elegant 18th-century building known for its impressive Georgian architecture. We conclude our walking tour with a visit to Dublinia Museum, a fascinating interactive museum that brings Viking and medieval Dublin to life. After lunch (not included), we enjoy free time to explore the Temple Bar district and Grafton Street for shopping. Overnight Dublin. The Conrad or similar. B, D.

* Note: Our visit to Trinity College Dublin and our viewing of the Book of Kells may be affected by planned renovations.

Day 7: Wednesday, August 5, 2026 | Edinburgh

We begin the day with a visit to the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the official residence of the British monarch in Scotland. Then we'll walk up the famous Royal Mile to visit John Knox House, which dates to 1470, making it one of the oldest, original medieval buildings surviving on the Royal Mile. The house is associated with the Scottish Reformation, a dramatic, turbulent time in Scottish history, which resulted in the outbreak of civil war and the abdication of Mary Queen of Scots. Afterwards, enjoy a visit of St. Giles' Cathedral (High Kirk of Edinburgh). In this imposing 14th century church, distinguished by its crown-shaped steeple, we discuss the Scottish Reformation. It was here that John Knox, the fiery reformer, preached in 1560 and led Scotland's break from Catholicism.
